of me a man. I always carried a six shooter, and, reaching for it from under my pillow, I said:

"Say, old man, what do you want here? Haven't you made a mistake, and gotten in the wrong room?"

He made no answer, but, pointing to the door, waved his hand as if he wanted me to follow. I got up, dressed and followed him. He led me to the other end of the city (the main plaza), where I found a large crowd. When I asked the meaning of it I was informed a man had just been murdered.

I pushed my way into the crowd and saw on the ground my visitor of a half hour before, dead. I looked around to see my friend, but he had vanished. Could it have been possible I had seen the ghost of the murdered man? GENO.
